<h2>Fast Cruising Catamaran SCHIONNING Wilderness 1320</h2> I am selling my fast cruising catamaran, the SCHIONNING Wilderness 1320, built from a West System epoxy sandwich kit. This sailboat was constructed in South Africa and stands out for its robust construction and ultra-light weight of only 6.5 tonnes for a length of 13.2 meters. My catamaran has been meticulously maintained and has very few engine hours, only 150 hours. It is equipped with two Lombardini diesel engines of 29 HP each, ensuring reliable and efficient navigation. <h2>Main Features</h2>
Length : 13.20 meters
Beam : 7.40 meters
Minimum draft : 0.83 meter
Material : Epoxy
Year of construction : 2018
Flag : South Africa
Marina berth : Yes
<h2>Layout and Equipment</h2> This catamaran offers spacious and comfortable accommodations with:
3 double cabins
2 heads
8 berths
Marine toilet
Hot water
Black water system
 It is also equipped with numerous electronic and deck equipment, including:
VHF
12/220 Converter
Garmin fishfinder
Garmin chartplotter
Furling genoa
Spinnaker
Electric windlass
Cockpit canopy
<h2>Why the SCHIONNING Wilderness 1320 is interesting to buy?</h2> The SCHIONNING Wilderness 1320 is an exceptional catamaran for several reasons. Its West System epoxy sandwich construction guarantees optimal strength and lightness, making it a fast and maneuverable sailboat. Its rigorous maintenance and low engine hours make it a reliable and ready-to-sail boat. Additionally, its spacious accommodations and modern equipment offer unparalleled comfort and safety for long cruises. Finally, its included marina berth is an additional asset for future owners.
