Brokers comments:
The Evripus 8.55 is a popular choice for those looking to explore coastal areas, particularly in Greece where it's frequently offered for charter. This RIB is designed to combine speed, comfort, and versatility, making it suitable for a range of activities from exhilarating day trips to relaxed beach hopping and snorkeling.
Performance and Handling:
The Evripus 8.55 is praised for its speed and agility. Owners and charterers often highlight its ability to get you to secluded coves and beaches quickly, making the most of your time on the water. The powerful engine options allow for an exciting ride, and the RIB design ensures a comfortable experience even when cruising at higher speeds. It's often described as "made for speed and performance" and ideal for day excursions.
Overall:
The Evripus 8.55 is a highly recommended RIB for those seeking a dynamic and comfortable boating experience, especially for exploring coastal waters and hidden gems. Its blend of performance, practical amenities, and positive user feedback makes it a fantastic choice for memorable day trips and private excursions.
