Nauticat 38 for sale in Kent £69,000

This 1984 Nauticat 38 presents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a beautifully maintained and extensively upgraded example of this highly regarded Finnish motorsailer. Renowned for their superb build quality, safe and stable cruising characteristics, and warm, handcrafted interiors, Nauticat yachts have long been a favourite among serious passagemakers and those seeking a comfortable long-distance cruiser. This particular vessel stands out thanks to a significant programme of recent upgrades, ensuring she is ready for many more years of dependable and enjoyable sailing. A major highlight is the new engine and bow thruster providing modern reliability, improved efficiency, and confidence during extended passages or when manoeuvring in tight harbours. Complementing this is a complete renewal of the standing rigging, giving peace of mind for offshore sailing and enhancing sail performance under her versatile ketch rig. With these fundamental elements already taken care of, she offers an attractive advantage over other yachts of her age and type. The updates continue throughout the vessel. A suite of new electronics has been installed, offering modern navigation, communication, and vessel-monitoring capabilities. These upgrades greatly improve ease of handling and situational awareness, whether cruising coastal waters or crossing open seas. Additionally, a full set of new AGM batteries supports reliable power management, ensuring all onboard systems—from navigation to domestic comforts—run efficiently on passage or at anchor. Inside, the Nauticat 38’s renowned accommodation layout delivers exceptional comfort, with a spacious wheelhouse, bright saloon, generous galley, and two private cabins, including an impressive aft owner’s suite with its own heads. Her teak joinery, solid craftsmanship, and thoughtful Scandinavian design create a warm and inviting interior ideal for extended cruising or life aboard. On deck, her wide walkways, substantial guardrails, and deep cockpit provide a secure environment in all conditions, while the ketch rig gives balanced sail handling and excellent versatility in varying winds. With her combination of proven bluewater capability, comfortable liveaboard accommodation, and an extensive list of costly recent upgrades, this Nauticat 38 is a rare find. She represents an outstanding choice for sailors seeking a reliable, well-equipped motorsailer ready for new adventures.

The owner will accept an unconditional, i.e., sold as seen, offer of £60,000 for a quick sale. Please call our Kent Office +44 (0)1634 571605 for further information or to arrange a viewing.
Accommodation :

welcoming living space with large windows, a raised seating and dining area, and excellent visibility from the inside helm position. The galley, located to port and conveniently positioned adjacent to the saloon, is well designed for use at sea and in harbour. It includes a two-burner gas cooker with oven, refrigerator with freezer box new in 2019, two stainless-steel sinks, ample work surface A new stereo and TV were fitted in 2022. Aft lies the impressive owner’s cabin, featuring a large double berth, built-in cabinetry, hanging lockers, and an en-suite heads compartment with electric toilet and washbasin. This private aft suite offers exceptional space and comfort for a yacht of this size and era. Throughout the yacht, the rich teak joinery, ventilation options, and thoughtfully planned layout make the Nauticat 38 a warm, practical, and comfortable cruiser, ideally suited to long-distance passagemaking or extended periods aboard.

Access to the exterior is via two sliding side doors, which lead out onto the wide side decks. The high guardrails provide safe walking access to the raised aft deck with its array of navigation equipment and secondary wheel steering position with aft deck seating.
