Remarks :

The Jeanneau Merry Fisher 895 Series 1 & makes smart use of its space, with enough room and storage for up to six people to stay on board without it feeling cramped; the forward owner's cabin gets good natural light from the hull windows and skylight, there's a separate side cabin for guests, and the saloon converts into another double berth when needed; a proper heads compartment, workable galley, and a saloon and cockpit that adapt to how you use the boat make it well suited to easy, no-fuss weekends away. This is a one owner from new boat and has been beautifully maintained throughout.

Part exchange and finance are available on this boat. Early viewing is strongly advised.

Accommodation :

Stepping aboard the Jeanneau Merry Fisher 895 Series 1, you enter the aft cockpit with bench seating, a table, and clear access along both side decks; inside, the saloon is bright with large windows, featuring a galley to port, a convertible dinette opposite, and a forward helm with good visibility; below deck, there's a double master cabin in the bow with storage, a double guest cabin to starboard, with a shared heads compartment, giving a practical layout for long stays on board.
