NEW LISTING FOR NYB ANTIBES | 1983 PEDRAZZINI ELBA DE LUXE

In 1906, at the age of 22, boat builder Augusto Pedrazzini moved from his home on Lake Como to Lake Zurich and lay the foundation for a family legacy that continues today, he realised his dream of establishing his own small boatyard in 1914. Each runabouts built since is a credit to the unparalleled skill and dedication that has characterized the Pedrazzini name for nearly a century. With high-grade teak grating adorning the swimming platform and solid mahogany planking forming the structural backbone, every element is meticulously handcrafted, the attention to detail is evident.Among these rare Runabout Crafts of this unique lineage is this 1983 Pedrazzini Elba De Luxe An exemplar of fine marine creation. This stunning runabout is not merely a vessel; it is a versatile retreat on water.Featuring:• a fixed roof that offers all-weather protection, it also doubles as a sunbathing area

• a large real glass panes provide passengers with expansive views

• the rear lounge area is spacious and strategically shielded from the wind

• the engines were completely overhauled in 2019, incorporating an advanced electronic injection system • new batteries (2023)

• engines service (December 2024)

• regularly maintained to high standardsThis blend of modern technology with classic design showcases the ongoing evolution of the Pedrazzini brand.Today, Claudio Pedrazzini, the fourth generation of this esteemed family, proudly carries on the legacy. He not only preserves the almost century-long tradition of crafting exceptional wooden vessels but also continues to innovate. Under his stewardship, the firm’s motorboats embody a striking fusion of Italian design flair and Swiss precision. There are only few opportunities to admire one of these wooden wonders at close range: they are an extremely rare sight on the world’s waterways, this Pedrazzini Elba De Luxe is one of these fine and rare examples.Pedrazzini runabouts should be reserved for just a lucky few…Accommodation :
