Remarks :

Lazy Days is a tidy and practical Bavaria 36 from 2003, featuring the sought-after two-cabin layout. With an overall length of 10.96 metres (35'11"), she offers excellent space for family cruising or couples looking for comfort afloat. Her fibreglass hull with a fin keel provides good stability under sail, and her Volvo Penta diesel engine ensures reliable motoring. Straightforward and easy to handle, she's an ideal choice for relaxed coastal sailing

Accommodation :

LAYOUT

The Bavaria 36 Sloop offers a traditional two-cabin layout with one large aft double and one forward V-berth. The saloon provides ample seating and a central table, while the L-shaped galley to port includes good storage and practical space for cooking at sea. The chart table is to starboard and a generous heads compartment with shower is located aft.

DOMESTIC

The yacht includes a pressurised hot and cold water system, manual heads, stereo system, and a well-equipped galley with hob, oven, refrigerator, freezer, and galley sink. Saloon and chart tables are finished in wood for a classic nautical feel.

TENDER

- Dinghy - Nepture - 2022 unused.
- Outboard- Mariner 3.3hp, 2 stroke - serviced 2021 - unused since

MISCELLANEOUS

- Warps & Fenders, inc 52ft Anchoralinalina tape for shoreline securing.
- KNOWN DEFECTS - Nasa Wifi wind indicator non functioning. Auto pilot drifts to Port - possible settings issue.. Nav lights need attention. Sink waste in heads has a small leak.

HISTORY

This yacht has been in private ownership and maintained consistently with a service record that includes a lift-out in May 2025. The standing rigging remains original and sails are dated at 14 years old, which may be considered for updating depending on buyer preference. The engine was last professionally serviced in July 2025. Overall, a solid example of this popular cruising design, offering scope for light refit and future customisation.

BROKER'S REMARKS This Bavaria 36 Sloop is a well-equipped and user-friendly cruising yacht, ideal for coastal sailing or longer passages with a couple or small family. While some updates such as the sails and rigging may soon be due given their age, the yacht offers sound fundamentals, solid Bavaria build quality, and a practical, low-maintenance GRP construction. With a recent lift and clean (May 2025), she's ready for her next chapter afloat.
