Various

Remarks :

This 47-foot bluewater cruising yacht is exceptionally well-equipped for serious offshore adventures and world cruising. Designed with long-distance comfort and autonomy in mind, she combines reliability, safety, and modern cruising conveniences in a highly capable package. Her robust GRP construction, upgraded systems, and comprehensive sail inventory make her ideal for sailors planning extended voyages or even a liveaboard lifestyle.

Numerous recent additions include new deck hardware, modern electronics, and essential energy-generation equipment such as solar panels, a wind generator, and water generators. With air conditioning, heating, and full safety gear already on board, this is a yacht ready to go&#151;whether you're planning a Mediterranean escape or a transoceanic crossing.
