Galia Galeon 560 cruiser now in the online auction. everyone can bid until 18 May 2026.

<h2>Galia Galeon 560 Cruiser from 1999 with Suzuki 100 hp outboard engine</h2>The Galia Galeon 560 Cruiser is a sporty and versatile motorboat, perfectly suited for day trips, recreational boating, and relaxing moments on the water. This 1999 model combines a streamlined design with practical handling characteristics and is equipped with a Suzuki DF100BTL outboard engine from 2012. With a length of 5.60 metres and a beam of 2.45 metres, this polyester cruiser offers a comfortable and accessible boating experience for both novice and more experienced watersports enthusiasts.<h3>Galia Galeon 560 Cruiser now in the online auction. Anyone can bid up to and including 18 May 2026.</h3><h3>Design and construction</h3>The hull of the Galia 560 Cruiser is made of polyester, a material known for its durability and low-maintenance properties. The boat&acirc;&#128;&#153;s design focuses on stability and efficiency, with a draft of only 50 cm, making it possible to cruise in shallower waters as well. Its compact dimensions make this boat agile and easy to manoeuvre, both on open water and in harbours or narrow waterways.The cabin provides shelter from wind and rain, increasing comfort in changing weather conditions. The layout is functional and geared towards practical use, with sufficient space for storage and seating. The style of the Galia 560 is sporty and timeless, with a hull design that still looks modern today.<h3>Engine and performance</h3>This Galia 560 Cruiser is equipped with a Suzuki DF100BTL outboard engine with an output of 100 hp. The engine is electrically started and features four cylinders, ensuring smooth and efficient power delivery. Suzuki&acirc;&#128;&#153;s fuel injection technology contributes to more economical fuel consumption and immediate throttle response while underway. The engine was installed in 2012 and provides ample power for both relaxed cruising and faster trips across lakes, rivers, or coastal waters.Thanks to the combination of hull design and engine power, the boat is suitable for various boating styles, from relaxed cruising to more sporty use. The handling characteristics focus on comfort and control, with a good balance between speed and stability.<h3>Equipment and possibilities</h3>The Galia 560 Cruiser is supplied with a road trailer, making transport and storage easier. The trailer is functional and suitable for road transport, although it is not fitted with a registration plate. This allows the boat to be moved easily to different boating locations, increasing flexibility for the owner.Signs of use are visible on board, consistent with the boat&acirc;&#128;&#153;s age. However, these do not detract from the vessel&acirc;&#128;&#153;s functional usability.&Acirc;&#128;&#153;<h3>Boating experience and use</h3>The Galia Galeon 560 Cruiser offers an accessible and enjoyable boating experience. Thanks to its clear layout and compact size, the boat is easy to operate, even for those with less experience with motorboats. The combination of a powerful engine and a streamlined hull enables quick acceleration and smooth cruising, even in changing conditions.This boat is suitable for day trips with family or friends, as well as solo outings or sporty cruises. The cabin provides shelter and makes it possible to remain comfortable on the water even in less favourable weather.<h3>Summary</h3>The 1999 Galia Galeon 560 Cruiser is a compact and versatile motorboat with a sporty appearance and practical features. Equipped with a 2012 Suzuki 100 hp outboard engine and supplied with a road trailer, this boat offers a wide range of possibilities for recreational use. Whether it&acirc;&#128;&#153;s relaxed cruising on inland waters or exploring new boating areas, this Galia 560 is an interesting choice for anyone looking for a functional and stylish motorboat.
