English Airon Marine 345 (2001) – Italian Style, Performance & Comfort Founded on Lake Como in 1976, Airon Marine, under Paolo Molinari, quickly earned a reputation for high-quality sport cruisers, expertly balancing speed, weight, and power for impressive performance and efficient fuel consumption. This Airon Marine 345 exemplifies the shipyard’s DNA: a dynamic and convivial cruiser, perfect for entertaining and comfortable coastal cruising. The cockpit is designed for social living, with generous seating and practical, intelligent solutions. Premium features typically found on larger yachts include: <ul> Electric engine hatch Electrically lowering cockpit table converting into a large sunpad Hydraulic passerelle Below deck, the interior is bright and well-appointed, providing comfortable accommodation for extended weekends onboard. This example has been well-maintained by a careful owner, with a full dossier of invoices available. Recent works include: <ul> Antifouling and anodes (April 2026) Heat exchangers and exhaust elbows (April 2026) Outdrive servicing (2025) Originally withdrawn from the market as the owner decided to enjoy his boat, now relisted with NYB Antibes. <hr data-start="226" data-end="229"><h3 data-section-id="ya8i5u" data-start="231" data-end="247">French</h3> Airon Marine 345 (2001) – Style Italien, Performance et Confort Fondé sur le lac de Côme en 1976, Airon Marine, sous la direction de Paolo Molinari, s’est rapidement imposé pour ses yachts sportifs de haute qualité, équilibrant parfaitement vitesse, poids et puissance pour des performances impressionnantes et une consommation optimisée. Ce Airon Marine 345 illustre parfaitement l’ADN du chantier : un cruiser dynamique et convivial, idéal pour recevoir et naviguer confortablement le long des côtes. Le cockpit est conçu pour la vie sociale, avec de larges assises et des solutions pratiques et intelligentes. Équipements haut de gamme généralement réservés aux grands yachts : <ul> Capot moteur électrique Table de cockpit escamotable transformable en grand solarium Passerelle hydraulique Sous le pont, l’intérieur est lumineux et bien aménagé, offrant un confort optimal pour des week-ends prolongés à bord.
