Remarks :
DESCRIPTION 2000 Beneteau Oceanis 411 three cabin owner’s version presented in very well maintained and extensively updated condition. This popular cruising yacht offers spacious accommodation, excellent storage and comfortable sailing performance, making her ideal for extended cruising or relaxed island hopping with family and friends. This example benefits from significant recent maintenance including hull sand blasting and full epoxy treatment in 2025, keel treatment in 2021, replacement rudder bearing, upgraded anchoring equipment and updated electrical systems including solar charging and new service batteries. Powered by the reliable Yanmar 56HP diesel engine with professional annual servicing, she is well equipped for comfortable liveaboard cruising. The three cabin layout provides excellent accommodation with two heads, generous saloon space and ample water capacity for extended time aboard. Highlights: • Hull sand blasted and epoxy coated (2025)
• Yanmar 56HP diesel engine professionally maintained
• ROCNA 25kg anchor with 80m chain (2021)
• Electric windlass refitted (2023)
• 2 x 130W solar panels
• New service batteries (2025)
• Three cabin, two heads layout
• AIS receiver and cockpit chartplotter
• Asymmetric spinnaker included
• Sprayhood, bimini and tender included BROKER’S REMARKS The Beneteau Oceanis 411 remains one of the most popular family cruising yachts ever built, offering an excellent balance of comfort, practicality and sailing performance. TI LOUP is a particularly well cared for example that has benefitted from substantial recent investment, giving her next owner real peace of mind for the coming seasons. Her spacious three cabin layout works exceptionally well for family cruising or entertaining friends aboard, while the generous cockpit and easy sail handling make her manageable for short-handed sailing. The upgraded anchoring setup, solar charging and practical cruising inventory mean she is very well suited to extended island hopping with minimal preparation required. Recent hull and keel works, together with regular professional engine servicing, make this a reassuringly maintained yacht that is ready to cruise immediately.
