This Lagoon 380 S2 is equipped with 2 engines of 29 HP that allow for low fuel consumption, ideal for long cruises. The interior layout includes:

- 4 double cabins
- 2 bathrooms
- A fully equipped kitchen
- A comfortable salon

Equipment

This Lagoon 380 S2 is equipped, among other things, with:

- A complete electronics package (GPS, autopilot, and chartplotter)
- A dinghy with outboard motor
- Booms
- An electric windlass

Comfort and Use

This Lagoon 380 S2 is perfect for family or friend cruises, with ample living space, a spacious cockpit, and easy handling. It has primarily been used for coastal outings and is ready to set sail for new adventures.

History and Specifications of the Lagoon 380 S2

The Lagoon 380 S2 is an iconic model designed by Van Peteghem/Lauriot-Prevost and built by the Lagoon Catamaran shipyard, a division of Jeanneau in France. Production of the Lagoon 380 began in 1999, and the improved model, the Lagoon 380 S2, was introduced in 2003. This model has been very successful thanks to its improvements, including a larger shower, improved storage shelves, a redesigned kitchen, and a double seat for the helm station. The Lagoon 380 is the best-selling cruising catamaran in history, appreciated for its performance and comfort.

The Lagoon 380 S2 has been used for ocean crossings and world circumnavigations, proving its robustness and reliability. It is equipped with two diesel engines of 29 HP, offering good autonomy for long cruises. The headroom in the salon is 80 inches (203 cm), and in the cabins, it is 74 inches (188 cm), providing a comfortable living space.

Maintenance and Updates

This boat offers an excellent price/quality ratio. Many technical and aesthetic elements have been updated between 2022 and 2023. This unit is available for delivery on 1/10/2025.

Why the Lagoon 380 S2 is Interesting to Buy

The Lagoon 380 S2 is interesting to buy for several reasons. First, it is a model known for its robustness and reliability, having proven itself during numerous ocean crossings. Additionally, its spacious and comfortable interior layout, with four double cabins and two bathrooms, makes it an ideal boat for family or friend cruises. Finally, its modern equipment and rigorous maintenance make it a safe investment for sailing enthusiasts.
