Initially trained as a shipwright, Franck Roy worked for more than ten years at Sysba Marine and Latitude 46 before creating his own shipyard. The shipyard quickly became known for its neo-classical sailboats, combining traditional aesthetics and modern technologies. In 2019, the shipyard was taken over by Romuald Tuffery, a young Vendée entrepreneur, who wished to modernize the processes while preserving the know-how and DNA of the shipyard. Despite challenges, including the COVID-19 pandemic, the shipyard continues to produce high-quality boats, appreciated for their design and performance. interesting to buy?</h2>The Solenn 23 is an exceptional sailboat, ideal for sailing enthusiasts thanks to its neo-classical design and modern equipment. Its design by architects Alain Mortain and Yannis Mavrikios, as well as its construction by the shipyard Roy Franck Construction Navale, make it a safe choice for coastal or inland water navigation enthusiasts. Its spacious cockpit and high-quality equipment offer optimal comfort for life on board. More details and pictures on xboat.uk
