ALU MARINE 52 DI - An Exceptional Boat for Great Voyages

I present to you my ALU MARINE 52 DI, a superb long-distance cruising boat that has completed more than two circumnavigations since 1999. This sailboat is perfectly maneuverable by two, or even alone. Indeed, when I broke my leg in Australia, my partner sailed the boat alone across the Great Barrier Reef, the Torres Strait, and the Arafura Sea to Darwin, covering 2000 nautical miles.

Comfort and Performance

This sailboat has provided a lot of satisfaction, performing well even in light winds and always remaining extremely comfortable. It has been well maintained with care, and all maintenance invoices are available. It underwent a complete overhaul before leaving France and has been maintained in shipyards in Trinidad, Tahiti, New Zealand, Thailand, and South Africa.

Equipment and Layouts

The ALU MARINE 52 DI is equipped with everything necessary for long and comfortable voyages:

- Perkins engine of 84 HP with 3400 hours
- Bow thruster in tunnel
- Generator Piccolo 4 (August 2022) 4.8 Kw
- Desalinator Dessalator 60 l/h 12v
- Autopilot Autohelm from 2020
- Main sail and genoa on roller
- Inflatable dinghy semi-rigid Hipalon 9' on davits
- Winch for outboard motor
- Electronics Radar, Transponder, AIS R + E

Maintenance and General Condition

Although this boat is in excellent condition, it now needs a refit. Its covers are a bit worn, and the white paint needs touch-ups in certain areas. Nevertheless, perfectly equipped, it only asks to continue sailing and to offer you unforgettable adventures.

Why is the ALU MARINE 52 DI interesting to buy?

The ALU MARINE 52 DI is an exceptional boat for several reasons:

- It has proven its reliability by completing several circumnavigations.
- It is designed to be easily maneuvered, even solo.
- It offers exceptional comfort, even on long voyages.
- It is equipped with everything necessary for safe and comfortable travel.
- It has been well maintained with available maintenance invoices.

This boat is perfect for those looking to experience maritime adventures without compromising on safety and comfort.
