<h2>ALU MARINE 52 DI - An Exceptional Boat for Great Voyages</h2>I present to you my ALU MARINE 52 DI, a superb long-distance cruising boat that has completed more than two circumnavigations since 1999. This sailboat is perfectly maneuverable by two, or even alone. Indeed, when I broke my leg in Australia, my partner sailed the boat alone across the Great Barrier Reef, the Torres Strait, and the Arafura Sea to Darwin, covering 2000 nautical miles.<h2>Comfort and Performance</h2>This sailboat has provided a lot of satisfaction, performing well even in light winds and always remaining extremely comfortable. It has been well maintained with care, and all maintenance invoices are available. It underwent a complete overhaul before leaving France and has been maintained in shipyards in Trinidad, Tahiti, New Zealand, Thailand, and South Africa.<h2>Equipment and Layouts</h2>The ALU MARINE 52 DI is equipped with everything necessary for long and comfortable voyages:

- Perkins engine of 84 HP with 3400 hours
- Bow thruster in tunnel
- Generator Piccolo 4 (August 2022) 4.8 Kw
- Desalinator Dessalator 60 l/h 12v
- Autopilot Autohelm from 2020
- Main sail and genoa on roller
- Inflatable dinghy semi-rigid Hipalon 9' on davits
- Winch for outboard motor
- Electronics Radar, Transponder, AIS R + E

<h2>Maintenance and General Condition</h2>Although this boat is in excellent condition, it now needs a refit. Its covers are a bit worn, and the white paint needs touch-ups in certain areas. Nevertheless, perfectly equipped, it only asks to continue sailing and to offer you unforgettable adventures.<h2>Why is the ALU MARINE 52 DI interesting to buy?</h2>The ALU MARINE 52 DI is an exceptional boat for several reasons:

- It has proven its reliability by completing several circumnavigations.
- It is designed to be easily maneuvered, even solo.
- It offers exceptional comfort, even on long voyages.
- It is equipped with everything necessary for safe and comfortable travel.
- It has been well maintained with available maintenance invoices.

This boat is perfect for those looking to experience maritime adventures without compromising on safety and comfort.
